In his warming work he seemed to fairly sail over the course, and he looked all over a winner. The surprise came at the word for the first heat, when Star Pugh, who had been out of form for several seasons, stepped right to the front and without a mistake raced Dr. Madara to a head and head finish. The judges saw Dr. Madara first. Star Pugh came right back in the second heat and won it in another ding-dong drive. Don Riley made a break in each heat and was out of it. ## PITTSBURGS BEAT CHAMPIONS

THEIR HITS AND NEW YORK ERRORS GIVE THEM GAME,

And This Notwithstanding Two Home Runs by McGann-Chicagos Too Much for Brooklyns-Quakers Beat Reds and Cardinals Win From the Bostons.

The Pittsburgs checked the Champions yesterday, making seven out of nine games that the New Yorks have won so far from the Western teams. Three Westerners won yesterday, the St. Louis Cardinals from Boston and the Chicagos from Brooklyn. The Quakers downed the Cincinnatis. The Reds dropped back into the second division, giving up fourth place to their conquerors. The

These tactics were put through with success by the Pittsburgs, and they defeated the champions in a game that was interesting from start to finish. After the rold spell, the sudden warm weather brought out a big crowd to see the Pirates and New Yorks do battle, and the spirit of rivalry was in the air. Once or twice it took the form of kicking, McGraw, Clarke and Wagner finding fault with the umpires' work. Johnstone, who had the bases to attend to, had several close decisions to adjudicate, and Bob Ensle had a close one at the plate.

Leaver pitched a more effective game than did Mathewson, and the pedagogue's support was better at critical times. The New Yorks did not exhibit their usual steadiness when steadiness was most needed. The only scoring that was done by the New Yorks was did not exhibit their usual steadiness in aking two home runs. Each of the quadruple clouts was a beauty, the ball lighting near the rope in left center and rolling under the rope. The first time Slugger Dan, the Wizard of the Willow, made a homer the ball would have rolled to the score board if a distant spectator had not picked it up and thrown it in. Unfortunately for New York, the bases were deserted when the home runs came.

Four spanking double plays calling for dexterous work with the ball, two rattling pick-ups by Tommy Leach and Peitz's good throwing to second base enhanced the brisk-ness of the grapple. In the first inning McGann hoisted the ball to the boundary Motann hoisted the ball of the for a run.

Howard thumped a two bagger to left in the fourth inning and scored on Wagner's single to center. Wagner reached second on a wild pitch. He surged around third when Clancy bunted, and hardly had time to slacken speed as McGann dropped Mathewson's throw of the bunt, and Wagner made the most of the chance, reaching the plate in safety.

the most of the chance, reaching the plate in safety.

In the ninth inning the ex-champs had a gala time. Howard landed on first by waiting. Waspier swung his fraction of a ton of weight against the ball with all his might, and the leather whisked past Devlin with vicious velocity. The hit was good for two bases, and Howard scored. Waspier reached third on Clancy's hit to right. He stayed there while Dahlen threw Ritchey out, but rushed in when Leach hit hard to Gilbert. Gilbert threw low to the plate, and Waspier was safe. Peitz bunted, Mathewson's throw struck him in the back, and Leach, who was under headway for second when the ball was hit, romped all the way to the plate on the combination of bunt and bungle.

CHICAGO (N. L.), 4; BROOKLIN, 1.

The Chicagos had both Chance and Johnny Evers back in the game at Washington Park and played in a style that was an improvement on their work in New York. They fielded faultlessly, batted freely and won from the Brooklyns handily. There were three hits forthcoming from each side in the third inning, but no sameness in the amount of resultant scoring. Only one run resulted from Brooklyn's cluster, but the Chicagos gathered in three runs. Schulte's home run had a good deal to do with this. With a man on base and two out Schulte sent the ball soaring over the right field fence. Then Maloney aingled, Dobbs made a fumble, and Chance hits for two bases, scoring Maloney. The Chicagos maintained their advantage with little difficulty. The score:

HANLON TO MANAGE REDS. Said to Have Signed a Contract to Go t

Cincinnati Next Season. One who is in a position to know, through his acquaintance with prominent Cincinnati folks, said yesterday that Ned Hanlon had signed to manage the Cincinnati baseball teamnext year. Hanlon signed the Cincinnati contract, he said, within the last week, and this will be his last season with the Brooklyns, whom he has managed ever since the Brooklyn-Baltimore consolidation several Brooklyn-Baltimore consolidation years ago.

Hanlon's salary, it will be recalled, was cut considerably this spring when the time came for him to sign with the Brooklyn Club. He demurred about signing at all. Finally, a compromise was effected, the figures still being considerably under the amount Hanlon drew previously from the Brooklyn Club.

Hanlon drew previously from the Brooklyn Club.

A new regime went into effect in the Brooklyn Club this year, Harry Vonderhorst selling out his interest and President Ebbets taking in Henry Medicus of Brooklyn in Vonderhorst's stead. Hanlon, according to report, could have signed with the Cincinnati Club last fall, but he said he would stick with Vonderhorst, and he did so. But at the last spring meeting of the National League, after the change of stockholders had been made in the Brooklyn Club, negotiations were taken up between President Herrmann of Cincinnati and Hanlon, which were consummated the other day.

When Joe Kelley, the present manager of the Cincinnatis, was here recently with his club and was told that Hanlon was likely to be his successor, he said to THE SUN reporter:

"If that is so, I am willing to exchange jobs with Hanlon at any time.

ST. LOUIS, May 18.—The St. Louis American team took to-day's game from the New Yorks by a score of 3 to 1. Young Hogg was again sent to the firing line for the visitors and was allowed to remain in the game for seven innings, when Clark Griffith replaced him. Two battery errors by Hogg in the first inning, followed by a two bagger, gave the Browns two runs. This proved sufficient to win the game without the additional run gathered in the sixth, off a two-bagger, a steal and an out. The only tally scored by the New Yorks was in the initial inning, off a freepass, a steal and a rap to center. The New Yorks are sadly crippled. With Elberfield and Chesbro both out of the game on account of ill health and Fultz in poor condition, Griffith is up against it. The score: ST. LOUIS (A. L.), S; NEW YORK (A. L.), 1.

CAIRNGORM WINS POCANTICO.

PAGET'S COLT THE ONLY WINNING FAVORITE AT BELMONT PARK.

Clark Griffith and Dekaber Are Bitter Disappointments-August Belmont's St. Estephe Soores at Liberal Odds-Gold sifter and Carrie Jones Succeed.

As far as form was concerned, the talent was up in the air all yesterday afternoon at Belmont Park. The weather was more favorable for the sport than on the two previous days, but the slow track knocked calculations as a rule sky high, for five out of six favorites were unable to make good. Sydney Paget's Cairngorm was the successful choice. He went to the post a 9 to 10 favorite in the Pocantico Stakes for three-year-olds, one mile and a sixteenth, with James McLaughlin's Oxford a hot second choice. Cairngorm, in spite of a clumsy ride by Willie Davis, who had him all over the track, was much the best of the small field, for he had a strong lead at the end of a mile and won, ridden out, by a length and a half in 1:53. M. L. Hayman's Right Royal, 6 to 1, shewed considerable improvement and took place money from R. W. Nelson's Cederstrome, the outsider, by a head. was knocked back early and Lyne was never took place money from R. W. Nelson's Cederstrome, the outsider, by a head. Oxford was knocked back early and Lyne was never able to secure clear sailing.

One of the bitterest disappointments was the defeat of Frank Farrell's Kinley Mack colt Clark Griffith, in the second race, for two-year-olds, four and a half furiongs. He opened at 4 to 5, but was soon hammered down to 7 to 10. He was bumped at the start, after which Shaw, according to some critics, gave him a decidedly weak ride, with the result that he could not finish better than third, three lengths behind John E. Madden's Merry Boy, a full brother to Mexican, who was second in favor at 9 to 3. August Belmont's St. Estephe, 8 to 1, meanwhile made all the pace and won by a head in a hard drive in 0:54 4-5.

Dekaber, another 7 to 10 favorite, ran last in the sixth event, at nine furiongs, with no excuses for her disgraceful performance. Go Between, second choice, on the other hand, went to the front at the half mile pole and stayed there, winning by two lengths in 1:58. John E. Madden's Adbell, 7 to 1, was the runner-up always, and had a similar advantage for the place, with Nine Spot, therank outsider, third, five lengths/before the favorite. August Belmont's Don Diego and H. P. Whitney's The Irisuman were equal favorites at 11 to 5 in the first race, for maiden two-year-olds, five furlongs. Don Diego was beaten before a half mile had been covered, while The Irishman backed up in the last furlong, both being unable to get a plece of the money. J. Grant Lyman's Gold Sifter, backed down to 16 to 5, made the pace after a slow beginning and won in a drive by a length from John E. Madden's Timber, 4 to 1. Moonehine, a 60 to 1 shot, was third. The time was 1:33.

R. T. Wilson, Jr. s. Gamara, a 12 to 1 shot, suddenly showed his real form when he won the third race, at six furlongs, by a length. Merry Lark, played for a good thing, was second, a head before Pasadens, the favorite, who did not rus to his best form. Workman had a rough trip, the favorite, after swe

A. G. VANDERBILT WINS A BET ON GAMARA, 12 TO 1.

> J. Grant Lyman Plunges Successfully on Gold Sifter, but Loses It All Back on Dekaber-Hayman Recovers His Two-Year-Old Colt Leonard Joe Hayman.

A. G. Vanderbilt visited Belmont Park esterday with several friends, and when R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Gamara was shown in the paddock before the third race the party spent much time admiring the colt's fine points. Just as Gamara stepped out upon the track Mr. Vanderbilt told a betting commissioner to wager $100 straight and $100 place on the Sorcerer colt, the odds being 12 to 1 and 3 to 1, and when the race had been won the young millionaire was well pleased because of his ability to pick a successful long shot. It was also said that Mr. Vanderbilt played August Belinont's St. Estephe, who won the second race at odds of 8 to 1. Mr. Vanderbilt has been a constant visitor to Belmont Park and not long ago he was credited with making a five figured wager on H. P. Whitney's Prince Hamburg. He is a lover of the thoroughbred and believes in backing his own judgment, making sometimes bets of $50 and at other times much larger amounts, as

J. Grant Lyman won and lost two heavy commissions during the afternoon. The first was placed on his colt Gold Sifter in the first race. Lyman went into the ring himself and got the money on $500 at a clip until, with many followers, the odds were lowered to 16 to 5. After that Lyman operated in a moderate way until his mare Dekaber was ready to run in the last race. So sure was Trainer House that Dekaber would come home on the bit that he advised Lyman to plunge, with the result that the latter placed all of his Gold Sifter winnings on the mare and more besides. Incidentally, House told Charley Fox, the owner of Go Between, that Travia's winning score in the qualitying round of the Garden City tournament three weeks ago, in which Travers did 83. Harold Wilcox, the young champion of the Metropolitan Golf Association, and Donald Mackellar were tied at 86, for second and third places, and Dwight Partridge was next at 87. The St. Paul's boys, with two teams entered, won the team championship for the second year.

There was a new drawing by the Mets for positions in the ring, but as usual the draw-ing amounted to nothing, as the five nonsecond year.

M. L. Hayman got his two-year-old Leonard Joe Hayman back yesterday in a roundabout way. Tony Aste, who bought him out of a selling race on Wednesday for $2,700, sold him later to Kansas Price. Hayman then hunted up Price, offered an increase over the figures at which the gelding was purchased, and got him. Hayman still has Aste's filly Miss Point, who was claimed out of the same race in retaliation.

It is reported that The Picket, who has been undergoing a preparation for the Brooklyn Handicap, has a very sore mouth and may not be able to start in the big race at Gravesend next Thursday.

Previous winners of the Pocantico Stakes were: Charade, Prince George, St. Maxim, Volley, Reusselaer, Sly Fox, Ethelbert, Missionary, Blues, Dixieline, Rigodon and Dolly Spanker.

NEW AUTO TRACK OPENED. Racers Tune Up at Morris Park for Meeting To-morrow.

In the presence of several score of well known automobilists and press representatives the new Morris Park automobile racetrack was formally opened yesterday afternoon. Seven racing cars were tried out, and four negotiated miles quite a little under the even minute. The feature was the first appearance of the new White steam racing car, with Webb day at the wheel. Although not let out, this speed creation covered several miles at better than a 55 second clip, and a great deal is expected of it in the racemeet to-morrow afternoon. Walter Christie drove a number of miles in his 60 horse-power Christie racer, and then turned it over to one of his men, E. Presen, who made the fastest mile of the day, flashing who made the lastest mile of the day, mashing under the wire in 54 seconds. Charles Basle, who is matched against Barney Oldfield in the meet to-morrow afternoon, drove H. L. Bowden's 90 horse-power Mercedes several miles, but made no attempt to speed. Louis Chevrolet made four trials with William Wallace's 90 horse-power Flat. He covered a mile in 0:54 2-5 seconds, and five miles in 4 minutes 52 seconds. Richard Stevens and George Isham Scott, who come together in the mile amateur race to-morrow afternoon, drove their 60 horse-power Mercedes some fifteen or twenty miles and seem to be very evenly matched. M. Roberts drove a 40 horse-power Thomas a mile in 1 minute 4 seconds, and A. Camacho in a 12 horse-power Franklin covered the same distance in 1 minute 26 seconds.

Although the Morris Park track impressed the visitors as being an excellent course, the drivers of the racing cars criticized the sharp turns and soft surface. The hig cars can travel at a very high speed on the long straights, but are forced to slow down considerably on the turns. After the trials yesterday afternoon the visitors and drivers sat down to a supper which was served in the Morris Park clubhouse.

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB MEET. Negative Vote on Amendment to Change Novice Class.

There was a large attendance at the quarterly meeting of the American Kennel Club yesterday and a decision reached on some matters of importance to all owners of bench showdogs. H. H. Hunnewell of Boston, of the American Fox Terrier Club, presided. The session lasted for early five hours, and while the debates were spirited the action taken was mostly in the negative on the tion taken was mostly in the negative on the issues presented. The conservatives may thereby claim a victory over the pushing, younger set of American dog breeders, but the various questions, according to the latter, will come up again.

The amendment offered that hereafter the novice classes at our shows shall be for American bred dogs only, that have never won a first prize at any recognized show, wins in the puppy classes excepted, was lost. The amendment was regarded as of signal importance by the owners of many large kennels, asthrough it they would not have to meet imported dogs except in the limit and open classes.

imported dogs except in the limit and open classes.

The proposed changes in the registration rule were voted down. One was that American bred dogs whelped after Jan. 1, 1908, must have registered parents. The second clause was that foreign bred dogs must have a pedigree of at least three generations, certified to by the kennel club of the country from which they are imported.

of the New York Tennis Club was continued yesterday afternoon on the club courts. 123d street and Manhattan avenue. The struggle for honors is now down to the semi-inals, with Theodore R. Pell, Wylie C. Grant, Lindley H. Hill and Robert Bryan still in the running.

Of the contests played yesterday, the most interesting one gave Lindley H. Hill a two out of three win over Robert M. Beckley. Beckley assumed the lead at the start, taking the opening set, with but one game for Hill. Beckley's service and side line shots were very effective. By plucky defensive work Hill held matters more even on the second set, finally winning the set by a deuce score. On the play-off Hill was easily the better man. Hill now meets Bryan, the winner to go in the final. The other contests were all taken in straight sets, Grant disposing of Johnson and Roberts, and Pell defeating Dr. Julian Smythe. Beside the semi-finals in the singles.—First round—Wyle C. Grant defeated Norman G. Johnson, 6—1, 6—1. Second round—Theodore R. Pell defeated Dr. Julian K. Smythe, 8—4, 6—3; Lindley H. Hill defeated Robert M. Beckley, 1—6, 7—5, 6—5.
